JOSEPH AKERS MISSING.

Ex-Supervisor of Roadhouse Has Suddenly Disappeared.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WHITEHALL, Ill., March 28.—Joseph Akers, a prominent and well-to-do farmer, and ex-supervisor of Roadhouse town, went to Roadhouse last Monday with his wife, drew $50 from the bank in the afternoon, came to this city and drew $50 from the bank about 3:30 p. m. and disappeared, since which time a most rigorous search of his own and surrounding neighborhood has failed to reveal his whereabouts. Mrs. Akers had been a victim of grip for three weeks before his mysterious disappearance, and his friends fear that a sudden fit of insanity seized him or that he has been put out of the way for his money. He was a man of good habits, pleasant and honorable in all his dealings and happy in his domestic relations. His wife is heartbroken and frenzied with grief.

Batch of Immigrants.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The steamer Clive, which arrived to-day from Naples, brought 1,119 Italian steerage passengers, the largest number of immigrants brought to this port by any one steamer this season.

NO CURRENCY REFORM

Representatives of Sound Money Convention Fail to Make Impression on the Administration.

TARIFF BILL ALL IMPORTANT

NIGHT SESSIONS IN THE HOUSE NOT UNLIKELY THIS WEEK.

Senate Has Its Hands Full with the Arbitration Matter—Sherman Laid Up with Rheumatism.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The representatives of the sound-money convention held in Indianapolis, who have been in Washington for the past week, are going home somewhat discouraged in their hopes of early action looking to the creation of a currency commission, but nevertheless with a clearer practical idea of the situation than they had before. They have not been able to impress either members of the administration or Republican leaders in Congress with the advisability of taking up the question of currency reform or making any moves along that line until after the new revenue bill is out of the way. One thing at a time and no chance for complications or distractions, is the underlying programme resolved on. The men who came to Washington to urge the early creation of a monetary commission would have it otherwise, but they are powerless and advisedly so.

An effort will be made for a rehearing in the case of William P. Rees, of Connersville, Ind., disbarred from practice before the Department of the Interior on a charge of "knowingly presenting a fraudulent pension claim."

Representative Zener has introduced a bill to extend the provisions of the pension laws to the Indiana state militia known and designated as the Indiana Legion, and to the widows, children and dependent relatives of deceased members of the Indiana Legion, who rendered service to the United States during the late war; also a bill prohibiting the dropping, suspending or reducing of pensions and providing for the restoration of pensions already dropped, suspended or reduced in certain cases.

Jose W. Weik, of Greencastle, is at the Riggs. It is not known what Mr. Weik is looking for. He was an enthusiastic stump worker in the McKinley campaign.

Many applications have been received for appointment as chairman of the Chickamauga Park Commission in place of Gen. Thomas Ryan, of Kansas, who resigned in the classified service. This vacancy can be filled only by transfer from similar duties within the Department or through a competitive examination under the Civil Service Commission. The law establishing the park confines appointment to those who participate in the battle of Chickamauga or Chattanooga.

The contest over the appointment of a director for the Bureau of American Republics probably will be settled this week. As a result of the examinations held yesterday by a board consisting of three foreign-born and two representatives of the State Department the following persons deemed eligible for appointment were certified to Secretary Sherman, in the order of merit: Frederick Hilder, Joseph P. Smith and Frank Webster. Mr. Smith probably will secure the place.

The Post to-morrow will say: A number of important nominations will be sent to the Senate to-day unless something unforeseen occurs. While the President's selections for several offices are not definitely known, it is believed that they will include the following:

Ex-Representative Shallenberger, of Pennsylvania, second assistant postmaster general.

Mr. Baxter, of Elmira, N. Y., third assistant postmaster general.

Thomas Ryan, of Kansas, first assistant secretary of the Interior.

Dr. L. Spaulding, of Michigan, first assistant secretary of the treasury.

Ex-President Andrew D. White, of Cornell, and ex-Secretary of the German embassy and accepted it.

Mr. Charlemagne Tower, of Philadelphia, who was originally named for the German embassy, will probably be minister to Austria.

Ex-Representative Draper, of Massachusetts, ambassador to Italy.

Ex-Representative E. H. Conger, of Iowa, ambassador to Mexico.

Mr. Butlerworth, of Ohio, commissioner of the General Land Office.

PROGRAMME IN THE HOUSE.

Some Red Oratory on Tariff Looked For.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—More days will see the end of the struggle over the Dingley tariff bill in the House. The bill will be open for amendment until 1 o'clock on Wednesday, when the debate will close with a two-hour display of oratory. The voting will begin at 3 o'clock on that day. So far as known there will be no break in the Republican ranks, but at least four of the Democrats will brave the party whip and cast their votes for the bill, three from Louisiana and one from Texas. There is also a probability that one Populist and one silverite will vote for this protective measure.

Mr. Dingley, who has engineered the bill through the eddies of debate with great skill, will devote his energies to pressing the consideration of the bill forward with the utmost expedition in order to complete it before the vote is taken. But the Democrats are pursuing a policy which has thus far rendered progress extremely difficult.

Only fourteen of the 162 pages of the bill were disposed of in the two days of last week. At this rate it would require twenty-one days for the House, sitting seven hours a day, to consider the bill. The bill is under the five-minute rule. If the present tactics of the opposition are persisted in it is not improbable that negotiations will be held to-morrow and Tuesday. The policy of the Democrats thus far has been to attack every item and make the text for general assaults on the bill. It is understood that they will make a particularly strong stand against the steel and sugar schedules. They do not hope to accomplish anything, however, in the way of amendment. They have made trusts the keystone of their opposition up to this time, and the only thing which they really believe they can accomplish is to secure a record vote on an amendment such as was offered on Friday providing for the suspension of the duty on any article controlled by a trust or combination. They propose to do this if possible by a motion to recommit with instructions to the bill reporter to report the committee of the whole. There seems to be a question, however, whether

FANNY ALWARD'S SAD DEATH

THE ACTRESS A VICTIM OF A DOCTOR'S CRIME IN BROOKLYN.

One of Hoyt's Actresses Finds She Was Married to a Society Man with a Washington Family.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 28.—Miss Sybil Sanderson, the beautiful American opera singer, may change the history of Russia. She is in the city on a tour of concert, and the Czar is completely infatuated by Miss Sanderson's acting and singing, and her personal charms. He is a constant attendant at the opera, and takes no pains to disguise his admiration.

The Czarina, who has strict ideas of propriety, is greatly annoyed by the connection of the names of her husband and Mrs. Sanderson by the gossip, and, it is said, she has taken the Czar to account for his actions.

There is no discussion looking to a possible postponement of the final vote on the tariff bill, but the slow progress which has been made in the House has caused the majority to say the vote surely will be taken on that day.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The Senate will devote its energies this week to the arbitration treaty with the vague hope on the part of some of its members that the treaty will be passed on Friday or Saturday. The Senate early to-morrow will go into executive session to consider the treaty if no unforeseen circumstance prevents, and thus afford ample time to complete all speeches by Wednesday, when voting on the measure will begin. The amendments to the treaty, which were introduced on Tuesday, will be considered on Wednesday. The consideration of amendments is to continue Thursday, provided the House will not act on the measure before that day.

The appropriation bills are expected to be reported to the Senate after the meeting of the House on Wednesday. The House will then take up the measure, but they will not be taken up in the Senate until the treaty is disposed of. The House will then take up the measure, but they will not be taken up in the Senate until the treaty is disposed of.

J. P. Smith Thought to Be Lucky.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The contest over the appointment of a director for the Bureau of American Republics probably will be settled this week.
